Flint Valley Ranch Graham, TX / Young County

PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

Flint Valley Ranch offers 39.98 acres of scenic land in eastern Young County, just 5.5 miles north of Graham, Texas. This ranch features a mix of native mesquite, mature oak trees, and thick underbrush, creating both privacy and excellent wildlife habitat.

At the heart of the ranch is a modern 2,560-square-foot home, designed with family living in mind. The open layout features a spacious living room, a thoughtfully designed kitchen with updated appliances, and a dining area that offers direct access to the backyard. With four bedrooms, including a private primary suite and a laundry room complete with a built-in sink, the home combines comfort and functionality. A private water well services the house, with co-op water also available along Highway 16.

Adjacent to the home is a brand-new 720-square-foot shop, perfect for storing equipment, tools, or recreational gear.

Flint Valley Ranch also boasts one pond that is a quarter acre when full. Mature oak trees are scattered throughout the property and surround the house on the west side, along with the thick mesquite. They provide prime cover for wildlife, including whitetail deer, turkey, feral hogs, and small game.

Flint Valley Ranch is a rare opportunity to own a well-rounded property close to town, offering modern living, outdoor recreation, and quiet country charm.
