Bucksnot Cabin Tract 80, Hempstead County, AR Hope, AR / Hempstead County

PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

Located just north of Hope, Arkansas, in the Terre Rouge Creek bottoms, this ±80-acre versatile property offers an exceptional opportunity for a hunting retreat, recreational getaway, or cattle operation.

The property features a comfortable 3-bedroom, 1-bath cabin with city water and electricity, providing a great home base for weekend getaways or extended stays. The acreage has a mix of pine and several varieties of oak timber, along with ample open ground suitable for establishing food plots and other wildlife improvements. The rich blackland soil provides excellent nutritional value for growing healthy deer and is also well-suited for cattle production. Several enclosed, permanent box blinds are strategically located throughout the property, making it ready for the comfortable hunter. The current owners have also meticulously planted multiple varieties of oak trees to encourage early and consistent acorn production for the local wildlife.

Whether you're looking for a private hunting retreat, a recreational property, or a place to run cattle, this property offers tremendous potential. Additional adjoining acreage is also available, providing an opportunity to expand your holdings. Acreage, wildlife habitat, established hunting improvements, and a cozy cabin with utilities make this a unique property in the Terre Rouge Creek bottoms.
