PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

Located in the heart of Missouri is Dewey's retreat which sits minutes south of Salem, Missouri. The 38 acre parcel offers multiple opportunities for use of the property. This piece of ground is located down a well maintained secluded drive just off of the paved highway offering great access to the property. Looking for a hunting retreat? Look no further as Dewey's retreat offers great hunting and a hunting cabin to get away to during the upcoming hunting seasons. The 30x40 shop would be a great place to use as storage, store farm equipment or to use as a shop to work. With multiple building spots that offer a great view of the surrounding landscape this property give you that chance to build the home of your dreams! The 38 acre property could be used for more than just hunting and recreational land. This property could hold a few head of livestock to create a beautiful hobby farm. The pond located in the northwest portion of the property would water the livestock and wildlife throughout all months of the year.
