PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

170± Acre Premier Hunting and Recreational Property with Cabin & Shop – Chester County, Tennessee

This exceptional 170± acre property in Chester County, Tennessee offers a rare combination of comfortable improvements, diverse timberland, and outstanding recreational value. With paved road frontage along State Route 22A and utilities readily available, this tract is well suited for a turnkey recreational retreat, hunting property, or long-term land investment.

The property features a well-built 1,100± square foot cabin constructed in 2014. The cabin includes a living room with an open-plan kitchen, two bedrooms, one bathroom, a laundry room, and a large screened-in porch overlooking the pond—an ideal setting to relax and enjoy the surrounding landscape.

Additional improvements include a 24' x 60' shop with a finished 24' x 12' bunkroom and an additional finished bathroom, providing excellent space for guests, storage, or equipment.

Approximately 80± acres have been recently select-cut, promoting healthy timber regrowth and improved wildlife habitat, while the remaining acreage consists of mature hardwood timber. The land is thoughtfully managed with multiple large wildlife food plots, shooting houses, and hunting stands already in place. A spring-fed pond and stream further enhance the scenic beauty and wildlife-holding capabilities of the property.

This central Tennessee tract offers excellent deer, turkey, and small game hunting opportunities. Power, water, natural gas, and fiber internet are all available along the paved frontage, adding flexibility for future use or expansion.

In addition to its recreational appeal, this property may also be a candidate for a stream mitigation easement or other conservation-based tax benefits for future owners, making it an attractive option from both a lifestyle and investment perspective.
