Discover the private side to one of Alabama's most prized wildernesses on this exceptional 195-acre tract nestled within Bankhead National Forest. Managed by the US Forest Service, this forest is renowned for its exceptional deer genetics, making it a prime destination for hunters seeking quality whitetail deer.

Situated in Lawrence County, Alabama, this tract boasts a diverse mix of young to very mature hardwood and pine timber, offering an ideal habitat for wildlife. With 3,000 feet of county road frontage, accessing this pristine wilderness is both convenient and seamless.

This property is home to proven quality whitetail deer and turkey, making it a haven for outdoor enthusiasts. Scenic rock shelters and waterfalls dot the landscape, adding to its natural allure. West Fork Creek meanders through the property, enhancing its charm and providing ample water sources.

Several established food plots offer prime locations for hunting and wildlife observation. An established road system ensures excellent navigation within and around the tract, providing ease of access for exploration and enjoyment.

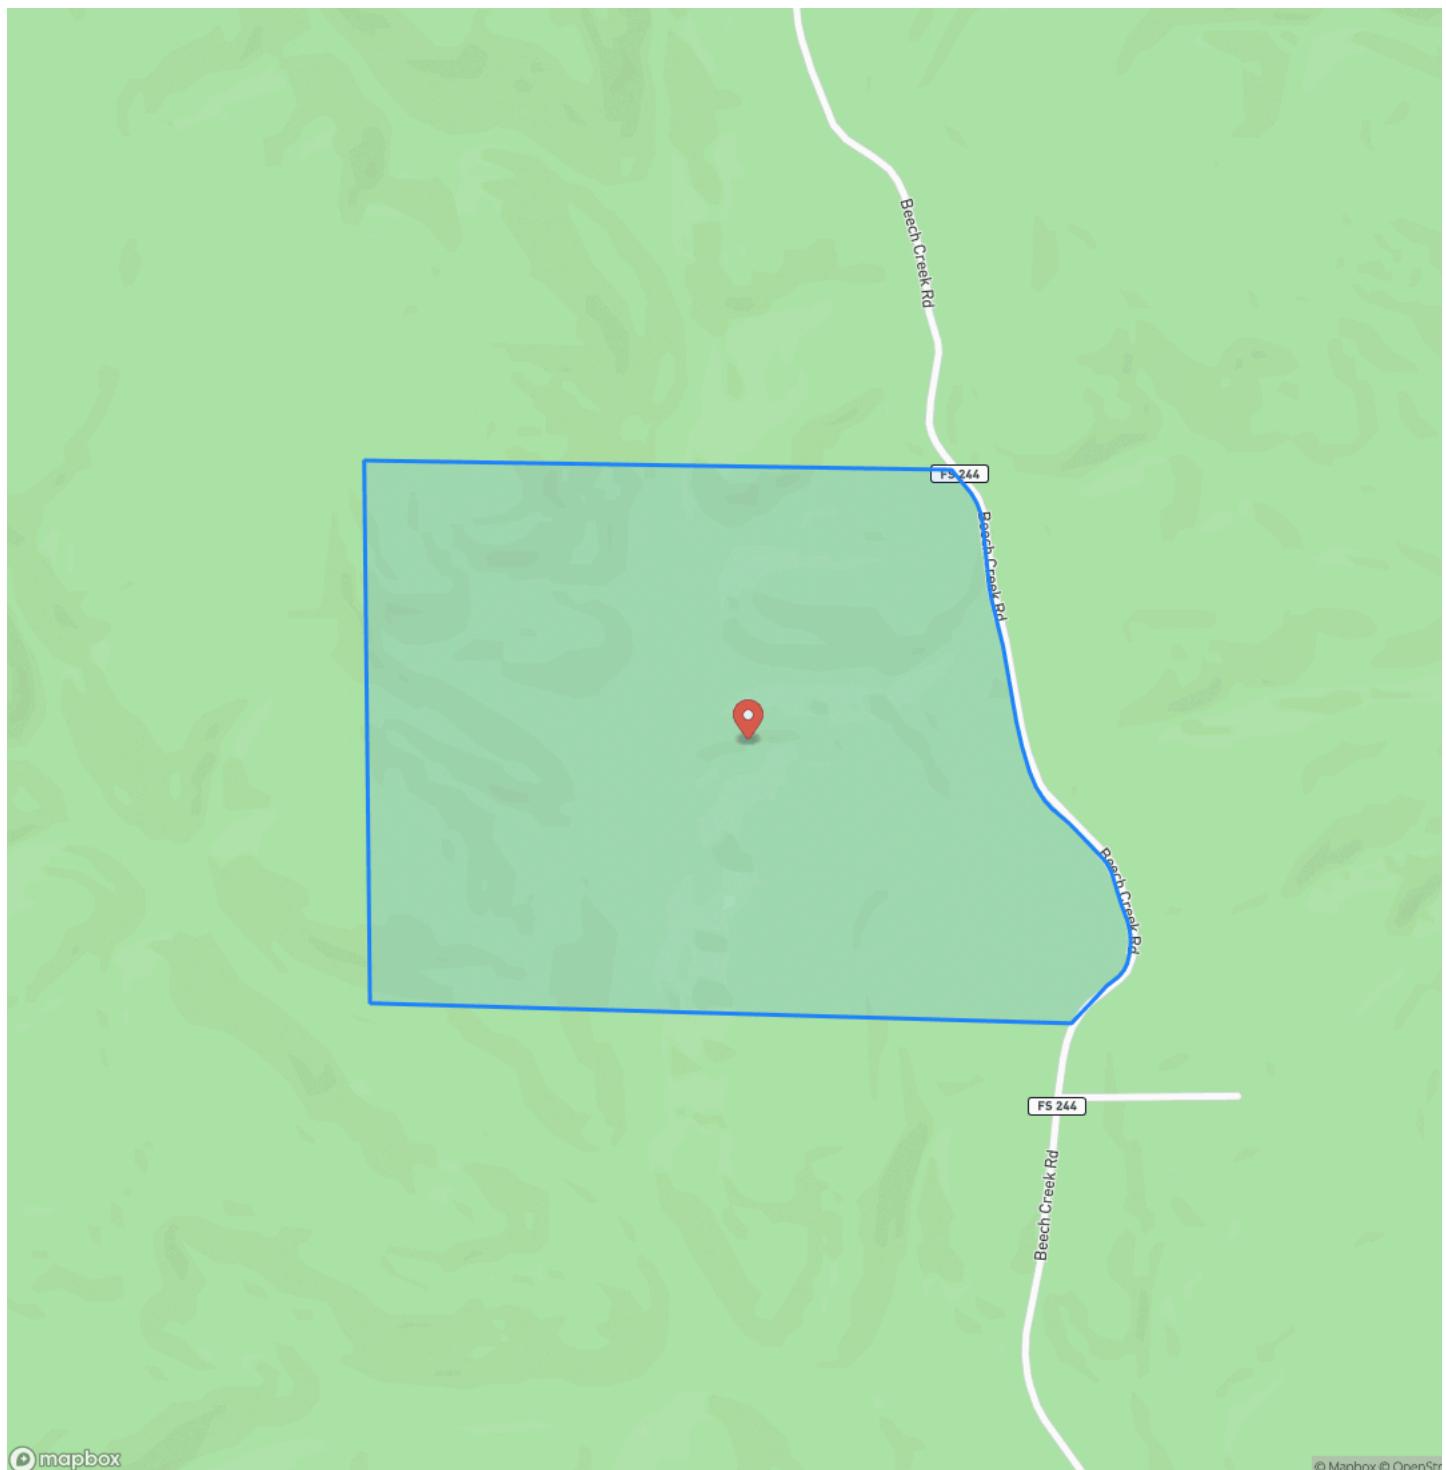

Located just an hour from Huntsville and about a 1.5-hour drive from Birmingham, this property offers the perfect balance of seclusion and accessibility. For those seeking their own slice of paradise within Bankhead National Forest, this tract offers all the qualities you desire. Contact Cameron Isbell at 256-483-8134 or cisbell@mossyoakproperties.com to schedule a showing by appointment only and embark on a journey into the heart of Alabama's wilderness.
