PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

Premier Hunting Land in Independence County, Arkansas | Springs, Creek, Pond & Mature Timber

If you've been searching for a true Arkansas hunting property, this one checks every box. Located in Independence County, this incredible tract offers the kind of habitat, water sources, and seclusion that serious hunters look for-but rarely find.

This property is loaded with wildlife, including whitetail deer, turkey, black bear, quail, rabbit, and squirrel, making it a year-round hunting destination. What truly sets this property apart is the abundance of natural water-featuring multiple natural springs flowing throughout the land, feeding into spring creeks, along with an additional pond. Properties with this level of water are extremely rare and create the perfect environment for sustaining wildlife.

The land is heavily wooded, providing excellent bedding, cover, and natural food sources. There are established trails throughout the property, allowing you to navigate by ATV or side-by-side, though some areas could benefit from light clearing and maintenance.

Access is via a legal easement, offering privacy and seclusion-ideal for hunters wanting to manage their land without heavy outside traffic or pressure during hunting season.

Whether you're looking to create a private hunting retreat, recreational getaway, or long-term land investment, this property delivers. The combination of diverse wildlife, year-round water, wooded, and seclusion makes this a standout tract in North Arkansas.

Be sure to check out the photos of the springs and stay tuned for our "ride along" video, where you can experience the property from the seat of a side-by-side.

Hard-to-find. Wildlife-rich. Water-loaded. This is the kind of hunting land serious buyers wait for.
