PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

153 +/- Acres Joining Ozark National Forest | Elk, Bear, Trophy Whitetail & Endless Adventure

Opportunities like this are becoming increasingly rare. Imagine owning 153 +/- acres that directly join the Ozark National Forest, giving you immediate access to over 191,500 contiguous acres of public land right out your back door. Properties with this kind of adjacency are few and far between, making this a truly exceptional opportunity for hunters, outdoor enthusiasts, and anyone looking to own a piece of the Arkansas Ozarks.

This property offers the best of both worlds-your own private acreage combined with access to one of the largest expanses of national forest in Arkansas. Whether you're hunting, hiking, exploring, riding ATVs, or simply enjoying nature, the possibilities are endless.

Wildlife is abundant throughout the area, including trophy whitetail deer, mature Eastern wild turkey, black bear, and even elk. This is the kind of property serious outdoorsmen spend years searching for.

One of the most unique features is the secluded bottom field tucked away from the road and hidden by timber on both sides. With a little work, this area could be planted in corn, soybeans, clover, or food plots, creating a private feeding area capable of attracting and holding wildlife right on your property. Just imagine the hunting opportunities this could create.

The property reaches elevations of approximately 1,300 feet, providing beautiful Ozark views, diverse terrain, and multiple potential building sites for a cabin, hunting lodge, or forever home. Electric is already available on the property, making future development even more convenient.

We are currently preparing professional drone footage and additional media, but don't wait for the videos to see this one. Properties that join the Ozark National Forest and offer this level of privacy, wildlife habitat, and recreational opportunity simply do not come available often.

Whether you're looking for a hunting retreat, recreational property, investment, or private mountain getaway, this may be the opportunity of a lifetime.
