PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

44 Acres – Bethesda Road, Henry County, TN

Pasture • Pond • Timber • Homesites • Near Kentucky Lake

Discover the perfect blend of function, beauty, and heritage on this 44-acre property located on the quiet and scenic Bethesda Road in Henry County, Tennessee. This land has a rich agricultural history, having been used for decades for cattle grazing and hay production. It's ready for your farming plans, recreational use, or private retreat.

As you arrive, you'll be welcomed by a custom metal entrance gate featuring striking whitetail deer artwork — a fitting symbol for a property where nature, wildlife, and open land meet in harmony. The land rolls gently across a mix of open pasture, mature hardwood timber, and a spring-fed pond, offering a serene and highly usable landscape.

Several potential homesites are scattered across the property, giving buyers flexibility to build a dream home, hunting cabin, or family compound. With power available at the road and plenty of natural beauty, it's ideal for rural living or a weekend escape.

The property is eligible for Tennessee's Greenbelt Program, which can provide significant savings on property taxes by designating the land for agricultural, forest, or open-space use.

Natural Features & Land Use:

- Fenced pasture formerly used for cattle and hay production
- Mature hardwoods providing shade, habitat, and privacy
- Pond for livestock, fishing, or wildlife attraction
- Custom deer-themed metal gate for secure and scenic access
- Eligible for Greenbelt tax savings program

Location & Surroundings:

- Located just a short drive from Kentucky Lake, a regional destination known for boating, fishing, and water recreation. The lake offers thousands of acres of public shoreline, boat ramps, campgrounds, and some of the best crappie and bass fishing in the country.
- Minutes from the city of Paris, the charming county seat of Henry County, known for its historic downtown square, locally owned shops, and the World's Biggest Fish Fry — an annual celebration that brings together thousands of visitors.
- Less than 2 hours from Nashville, making it a convenient weekend getaway location or full-time residence with access to urban amenities.

Schools & Community:

Henry County is known for its supportive rural community, low crime rates, and strong school system. The property is located in the Henry County School District, which includes:

- Harrelson School (K-8) – A highly-rated local school
- Henry County High School – Known for its academic and athletic programs

About Henry County & Paris, TN:

Founded in 1821, Henry County is steeped in agricultural and cultural history. The region played an important role in Tennessee's development and is still one of the top counties in the state for cattle and row crop farming. The county is also home to abundant wildlife and public lands, including parts of the Tennessee National Wildlife Refuge, offering hunting, birdwatching, and recreational opportunities.

Paris, TN, the county seat, boasts a blend of small-town hospitality and historic charm. With its restored historic courthouse, art galleries, and community events, Paris is a hub for residents and visitors alike. The town's Eiffel Tower replica stands as a fun nod to its namesake and embodies the community's spirit.
