PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

Contact listing agent Ryan Walker, "The Dirt Dealer" for more information or to schedule a showing.

This 54-acre property in Lafayette County, Florida offers excellent frontage on three roads: County Road 251, Keystone Road, and Longitude Road. The diverse land consists of 22 acres of hardwoods, 17 acres of pasture with scattered trees, and 15 acres of planted pines. Producing pecan, pear, and orange trees are already established on the property, providing a promising start for a mini farm or homestead lifestyle. A well is in place, along with a 30x40 prefabricated pole barn featuring a 12x40 lean-to. The metal building has three bay doors, two of which need repair or replacement. Some tree damage from past hurricanes is evident across the property.

The property offers convenient access to several towns and coastal areas with approximate distances as follows:

- 10 miles north of Mayo, the Lafayette County seat
- 25 miles to Madison
- 30 miles to Live Oak
- 45 miles to Steinhatchee (fishing town on the Gulf)
- 38 miles to Cedar Key (Gulf Coast fishing town)
- 50 miles to Gainesville
- 65 miles to Tallahassee (state capital)
- 50 miles to Perry
- 40 miles to Dekle Beach
- 42 miles to Keaton Beach

With its combination of land types, established fruit and nut trees, and road frontage, this property presents an excellent opportunity to build your dream home on acreage, start a mini farm or homestead, or explore future development potential—all while enjoying access to both inland towns and nearby Gulf Coast fishing and recreation.
