30.35 Acres of Waterfront Land For Sale in Pittsylvania County, VA Pittsville, VA / Pittsylvania County

PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

Pittsylvania County, VA. Welcome to a private lakeside retreat on beautiful Leesville Lake. More than 30 acres offer a rare mix of seclusion, natural beauty, and modern infrastructure, ready for a dream home, family retreat, or development vision.

This property delivers lake and mountain views from a perch above a quiet, protected cove. Sunrise over the water, hardwood ridges behind you, and wildlife moving through the timber make the setting hard to match.

Mature hardwoods cover the tract, including massive white oaks and hickories. Sign is plentiful, and the area is known for strong deer, turkey, and bear populations. The lake itself offers excellent waterfowl hunting.

The hard work is already done. A well-built road with culverts and ditches runs to the waterfront. Underground utilities are in place to the water's edge, and extensive riprap protects the shoreline. Six building sites with soils suitable for septic were previously identified, so the land is ready for a lakefront estate, a cluster of family homes, or a thoughtful development plan. Location, privacy, and improvements already in the ground make this a rare package.

Pittsylvania County puts you on Leesville Lake with Smith Mountain Lake only a few miles away. Leesville is the quieter water below the dam, a serious fishery that holds the Virginia state-record striped bass at over 53 pounds, with room to boat, fish, and watch waterfowl. Just up the road, Smith Mountain Lake brings the larger playground: marinas, restaurants, shopping, boating, and a full weekend scene when you want it. Nearly 5,000 acres of the Smith Mountain Cooperative Wildlife Management Area sit nearby for hunting, fishing, and hiking, and the Blue Ridge is close enough for a day in the mountains. You get the privacy of a protected cove, with recreation on both lakes within easy reach.
