PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

Situated in the scenic hills of Sequoyah County, this 320 ± acre Brushy Creek Hunting Camp offers a private setting with a diverse mix of habitat! The property also includes existing improvements that make it a true turn-key recreational tract. The land is primarily covered in mature timber, with a mix of hardwoods and pine, along with strategically placed clear cuts and established food plots that create ideal conditions for wildlife. The rolling Ozark terrain provides great views and natural vantage points, while native grass bedding areas are scattered throughout to enhance the overall habitat. At the center of the property sits a versatile barndominium featuring a full kitchen, bathroom, and an open studio-style layout with a loft that can serve as a bedroom or additional storage. Whether you're looking for a hunting cabin, weekend getaway, or even a full-time residence, this structure offers plenty of flexibility. A separate garage provides additional space for equipment and storage. The property is accessed via a deeded easement and opens along a prominent highland cut that runs through the center, with a road following its path for easy navigation across the acreage. Water is abundant here, with Brushy Creek running through the property along with three stocked ponds, providing reliable water sources for wildlife. The combination of water, cover, and elevation supports a strong population of deer and turkey, along with the occasional black bear, making this a premier hunting tract. Located approximately 12 ± miles from Sallisaw, 35 ± miles from Fort Smith, Arkansas, and 41 ± miles from Tahlequah. If you're looking for a large, private tract with diverse terrain and solid improvements, this Sequoyah County property is worth taking a look at! All showings are by appointment only.
