Elk Fall Ranch Lamar, OK / Hughes County

PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

This exceptional 160+/- acre recreational and hunting property in Hughes County, Oklahoma is the kind of tract that doesn't come available often! Blanketed in mature white and red oaks, the timber stand is as impressive as any in the region, with a clean, park-like understory maintained through a proven program of periodic controlled burns. The result is a property that is as beautiful to walk as it is productive to hunt. Wildlife on this tract is genuinely elite consisting of trophy whitetail deer, elk, eastern turkey, feral hogs, and native quail all call this property home, making it a unique opportunity for the multi-species hunter. Three established food plot locations have historically been worked with sweet corn, cereal grains and brassicas as well as watermelons, and pumpkins, drawing and holding game throughout the season. The plots are well-sited and ready for the next owner's program. A creek winds through the property, complete with a natural waterfall, an aesthetic and functional centerpiece. A stocked pond adds fishing to the already lengthy list of recreation available on the ground. Positioned just 800+/- yards from the Canadian River, the property benefits from incredible wildlife travel corridors and the added recreational access that comes with proximity to one of Oklahoma's signature rivers. Maintained two track trails run throughout, giving vehicle access to the entire property! A 400+/- sq ft cabin sits at the front of the property offering immediate overnight utility. An outhouse services the cabin, and the setup is ready to use from day one! The property is located 20+/- miles from Holdenville, 38+/- miles from Okemah and 49+/- miles from McAlester!
