70 ± Acres | Cal Thomas Road | Grady County, GA

This 70-acre tract sits just outside Whigham, Georgia, on Cal Thomas Road in Grady County. The property was cleared about a year ago and is now coming back in natural regeneration, offering a great mix of young cover and open ground — a blank canvas to set up however you'd like. It lays out well for food plots, pasture, pine planting, or a future homesite.

The tract has a recently mulched trail, allowing easy access around by ATV or truck, and the area is known for strong deer and turkey populations. Power is available along the county road, and the setting is quiet, rural, and private.

Whether you're looking for a recreational property, a small farm setup, or a long-term land investment, this Cal Thomas Road tract offers great diversity, access, and the freedom to make it your own in southwest Georgia.

Features include:

- 70 ± acres with natural regeneration throughout
