67.6± Acres | Decatur County, GA

67.6± surveyed acres with paved road frontage and 54.7± acres of planted pine. A fire break encircles the pine stand, providing excellent access and doubling as an internal road system. A gas line easement runs through the tract, creating open lanes for food plots, hunting, or future utility access. This is a blank canvas property ready to be set up as a hunting tract, timber investment, or future homestead. Located less than 15 minutes from downtown Bainbridge with abundant wildlife and convenient access to major highways

The tract is enrolled in CUVA (Conservation Use Valuation Assessment), which helps keep property taxes low while preserving the land's rural character. Whether you're looking for a quiet place to hunt, a future home site, or a long-term investment, this property offers a lot of upside in a peaceful part of southwest Georgia.
