Welcome to a prime 151± acre working farm nestled in the heart of Gates County, North Carolina, just outside the quiet town of Corapeake. This property is a rare find for those seeking a blend of productive farmland, managed timberland, and functional infrastructure—all within easy reach of the Virginia state line. Whether you're looking to expand your agricultural operation, invest in timber and land, or create a homestead with income-producing potential, this versatile tract offers something for everyone.

The farm features approximately 75 acres of highly productive, tillable farmland that has been in active agricultural use for years. These fields are well-drained and comprised predominantly of Goldsboro, Rains, and Lynchburg fine sandy loam soils—recognized for their fertility, workability, and suitability for a wide range of crops such as corn, soybeans, wheat, and even specialty produce. These same soil types also offer favorable conditions for building, making this property an excellent candidate for a private residence or future development.

Complementing the open farmland is 60± acres of 15-year-old timber, a mix that has been professionally managed and presents a valuable long-term investment. The timber stand adds diversity to the property and supports wildlife habitat, recreational opportunities, and future harvest value.

One of the farm's most practical features is its over 1,600 feet of road frontage along Savage Road, thoughtfully spread across three separate sections. These multiple access points offer exceptional flexibility for farm equipment movement, potential subdivision, or creating multiple entrances for future residences or structures.

Infrastructure on the property includes two substantial pole barns: one measuring 90 feet by 50 feet, and the second 80 feet by 50 feet. These structures are ideal for storing tractors, implements, hay, feed, and other equipment. Their solid construction and ample size provide immediate utility to the working farmer and offer options for workshop space or expanded operations.

Located in a peaceful rural setting, this property is still conveniently close to the amenities of Suffolk, VA, and other nearby towns, making it a strategic location for both lifestyle and business. Whether you're a seasoned farmer, investor, or someone dreaming of a countryside retreat with income-producing assets, this Gates County farm is a true opportunity.

Don't miss your chance to own a valuable and versatile piece of northeastern North Carolina farmland with infrastructure, access, and natural resources in place. Schedule your showing today!
