PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

This 51.03 +/- acre Pushmataha County property sits deep in the mountains of Southeast Oklahoma and offers the kind of terrain and cover that serious hunters look for! With steep elevation changes and mature pine timber throughout, the land provides natural bedding areas, thick cover, and elevated vantage points—ideal for hunting whitetail deer, black bear, and small game. A gated entrance opens to a trail that runs the length of the property, allowing access for ATVs or trucks to reach hunting spots or future camp setups. Several clearings and ridgelines throughout the tract create perfect locations for setting up blinds and feeders. Secluded and private, this property offers the kind of quiet setting that holds game and keeps pressure low. Sardis Lake is only 25 +/- minutes away, adding nearby fishing to the list of attractions. You're also 20 +/- minutes from the town of Clayton, 1 hour and 5 +/- minutes from Antlers, and about 1 hour and 15 +/- minutes from McAlester.
