PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

Discover the epitome of Texas leisure and investment with the 6W Ranch, strategically located just under two hours from Houston, Victoria, and the pristine Texas Coast. Spanning an impressive 604.932 contiguous acres across Lavaca and Colorado Counties, this sanctuary offers an opportunity for those looking for a rare blend of a blank canvas to develop a home site with many improvements already made for hunting, fishing, and ranching. Property Highlights: - Vast Acreage: The ranch encompasses the original ranch which was 473.646 acres in Lavaca County and 11 acres in Colorado, with an expansion of the ranch called the Balusek Purchase in Colorado County. The expansion added an additional 120.286 acres making the ranch 604.932 contiguous acres.

- Improvements: The property is equipped with essential infrastructure including:
 - A water well situated conveniently near the original homestead site, now ready for your future residence or cabin.
 - Two electric meters servicing the property.
 - A large hay barn with both electricity and water, complemented by a smaller feed barn.

 - Extensive hunting opportunities with two duck blinds, 5 deer box blinds, 1 tree stand, and six game feeders, for hunting ducks, deer, turkey, and hogs.
- Beautiful Natural Surroundings: The land is graced with approximately 60% dense wooded areas with magnificent 30+ foot oak trees that provide a wildlife sanctuary and shade, while the remaining 40% features more of an open landscape dotted with scattered nice sized cluster of oaks near the road frontage.
- Infrastructure & Maintenance: Internal roads are thoughtfully designed for easy access, ensuring you can monitor feeders, fences, cattle, and other ranch activities seamlessly. The same ranch manager has been dedicated to the property for an impressive 17 years, ensuring operational consistency and care.
