PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

Take a look at the Bluff City Combo Farm, 158.2 +/- acres of proven production, exceptional hunting, and true multi-use potential in Harper County, Kansas! This well-balanced tract offers a rare combination of income-producing farmland, quality grazing opportunities, and outstanding recreational appeal. Featuring two productive tillable fields with terraced ground, the farm presents immediate agricultural value along with the potential for continued return on investment. The existing fenced pasture areas provide excellent opportunities for cattle or other livestock, making this a true combo property built for both productivity and versatility. Running through the heart of the farm is a beautiful live creek corridor lined with mature trees, creating a natural travel route while providing year-round cover, water, and habitat for wildlife. Complementing the creek are two ponds, further enhancing both livestock utility and wildlife attraction. For the hunters, this property has a proven history of mature Kansas whitetails, with multiple quality deer harvested over the years. The combination of water, cover, food sources, and natural travel corridors creates the kind of habitat serious hunters look for but rarely find.
