PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

Are you looking for a recreational property surrounded by some of Southern Indiana's best hunting ground? This 24-acre tract in Washington County offers a rare opportunity with hundreds of acres of state forest surrounding the property, creating exceptional wildlife habitat and endless room to explore. Located near Austin Bottoms Conservation Area, this property puts you in the heart of great deer and turkey country.

The mostly flat terrain provides opportunities to create food plots, improve habitat through selective timber cutting, or customize the property to fit your hunting style. Deer sign and turkey sign can be found throughout the property, showing the potential this tract offers.

Whether you are looking for a weekend hunting camp, recreational getaway, or your own private piece of ground to develop into a wildlife haven, this property deserves a look. Property is located within the flood zone. If you have been searching for affordable recreational acreage surrounded by large blocks of timber and habitat, this could be it.
