Loaded with massive whitetail deer and strong turkey populations, this property offers excellent habitat and proven wildlife activity throughout the seasons. The land is predominantly wooded, providing ideal cover, natural travel corridors, and multiple excellent stand locations for serious hunters. Two wet-weather creeks run through the property, supplying a reliable natural water source and enhancing wildlife movement. Adding to the uniqueness of the land is a sunken cave, an uncommon and interesting natural feature that further sets this tract apart. The property includes onsite electric access, several beautiful potential homesites, and an impressive 900-foot driveway leading into the property—perfect for a secluded campsite, cabin, or hunting lodge. A recently constructed ATV/UTV trail extends to the back of the property and leads to a newly established 1–2 acre food plot, already enhancing the property's hunting potential.
