

Well-maintained and full of space, this classic brick Ranch home sits proudly on a generous corner lot in McComb, MS. With 4 bedrooms and 2 full bathrooms, it offers the perfect blend of function and comfort for everyday living. Step into the large, inviting den and flow into an open kitchen ideal for entertaining or easy weeknight meals. Just off the kitchen is a massive sunken dining room—big enough to host holiday gatherings or a crowd for game day. The home also includes an attached shed for extra storage, plus a built-in storm shelter/unfinished partial basement offering both peace of mind and potential for future finishing. The oversized 2-car carport and wide driveway provide ample parking for multiple vehicles, boats, or trailers. If you're looking for space, security, and a solid home in a convenient location, this one checks all the boxes. Don't miss your chance to make it yours!
