Corney 226 is a meticulously maintained timber tract with unbelievable recreational and hunting opportunities. This tract is located just southwest of Junction City, LA, and just Northwest of Summerfield, LA, and Corney Lake. This tract is loaded with wildlife, including whitetail deer, turkey, and other small game. This tract has an extensive interior road system with a main all-weather haul road that dissects the tract. The timber stand has been highly managed and is nearing the next thinning stage. If you are looking for an affordable timber investment with incredible hunting that is very private, then this is the tract for you.
