

Just outside Huttig, Arkansas in Union County, this 23.04-acre tract offers a rare chance to own a small piece of prime timberland surrounded by thousands of acres of managed woods. With direct access from Stateline Road, it's easy to slip in for a weekend hunt or simply hold as a long-term timber investment. The property's setting provides excellent habitat for deer and other small game, giving you the feel of a big hunting lease without the price or upkeep of a large tract. Don't miss the opportunity to make this one your's today!
