Deer and Duck hunting land with a camp in Sportsman's Paradise. This property is a part of Lonesome Dove Farms, a 1,196-acre hunting property with an additional main lodge. This property can also be bought with more acreage, contact Casey Valentine for more details. The majority of this property is in WRE with multiple duck holes, big food plots, and internal roads. There is a 15 HP pump to fill the duck hole on this tract and several other duck hunting locations. The camp is a metal building with 3 beds and 2 baths which has been used in the past for extra guests and family. There is also a metal building to park equipment and storage located beside the camp. This property is well known for producing 160-170" whitetails on a yearly basis, the current owners have strictly managed this property for mature deer as well as doe management. This property also has turkey hunting as an added bonus. This is a premier hunting property in the heart of Tensas Parish and is now ready for a new owner.
