PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

This 120 ± acre property in Henry County, Missouri offers an excellent combination of productive farmland and quality recreational ground! Approximately 80 ± acres are tillable with good soil and were in soybean production this year that produced strong yields. Recent dirt work has been completed to ensure proper drainage, enhancing long-term productivity and ease of farming. The remaining acreage consists of wooded cover featuring mature, acorn-producing oak trees and thick habitat, creating an ideal environment for whitetail deer and other wildlife. A creek runs through the timber on the north side, providing a natural water source and additional recreational appeal. With both highway and gravel road frontage, this property offers convenient access for farming equipment and multiple entry points. Located just 15 ± minutes from Clinton and 20 ± minutes from Warrensburg, it makes a great addition to an existing farming operation, a strong investment tract, or an excellent hobby/hunting farm!
