

SALCRO LANE
COLLETON COUNTY, SC
51.1 +/- ACRES
$276,000

PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

Discover the quiet charm of rural Colleton County with this 51.1-acre tract nestled in a quiet rural setting in the northern portion of Colleton County just off Hwy 61. Predominantly wooded, the property features an internal road system that provides access throughout, making it ideal for hunting, recreation, or exploring your own private retreat.

A roughly half-acre clearing is already in place, complete with a mobile home being sold as-is, perfect for use as a hunting camp, weekend getaway, or a base while you build your dream home. The neighboring lands consist of small family farms and managed forest creating a natural landscape that offers both privacy and excellent wildlife habitat. Located less than half a mile from the scenic Edisto River, this property puts you within close reach of some of the Lowcountry's best boating and fishing opportunities. A public boat landing at Colleton State Park is just a short drive away, and nearby private access points may also be available.

Whether you're looking for a secluded recreational tract, a hunting property, or a future homesite, this versatile offering combines accessibility, privacy, and proximity to the river.
