$650,000

PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

Consider the endless possibilities of owning 7.69 +/- acres on McCoy Creek near Shellman Bluff in McIntosh County. Conveniently located off Belle Hammock Road and along tranquil McCoy Creek, this property offers a rare blend of natural beauty, functional infrastructure and room to grow, free from the restrictions of an HOA. Enjoy the stunning views from your backyard bluff or launch your kayak for an afternoon exploring the natural beauty of coastal Georgia.

This acreage is well suited for a variety of lifestyles and hobbies featuring:

Secure Storage: A 0.25 +/- acre fenced storage area featuring a 20 x 20 pole barn—perfect for boats, trailers, or equipment.

Acreage: Additional acreage could be converted for equestrian pursuits or other livestock. Workspace: A dedicated 10 x 20 workshop and an additional 17 x 20 covered storage area provide ample room for projects and organization.

Creative Retreat: Located just off the back deck, a sun-drenched space serves as the ideal art studio or private office, offering inspiring views of the marsh and McCoy Creek.

The 2,295 square foot home features a 4-bedroom, 3-bathroom floor plan:

Architectural Details: Red oak flooring runs through the great room and primary bedroom, complemented by pecky cypress ceilings, reclaimed hand-hewn structural support beams and posts.

Living & Dining: The heart of the home features an open concept great room with a gas fireplace, a kitchen equipped with a gas stove and mud room with separate entrance for practical everyday use.

Primary Suite: The primary bedroom includes an en suite bathroom with a double vanity and a large shower.

Additional Bedrooms: Three generous bedrooms offer total flexibility—perfect for multi-generational living, guest accommodations, or a second home office

Whether you are looking for a private marsh front sanctuary, a home base for your coastal adventures, or a property that offers the flexibility to grow with your needs, this McCoy Creek estate delivers.
