PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

Nestled in the Ozarks. The moment you drive through the gates and cross the bridge, you are encompassed in the shade of mature walnut trees and mighty oaks that line the driveway and the surrounding hill side. The only traffic is a flock of wild turkeys or whitetail deer that are seen daily feeding along the driveway – even drinking out of the bird feeder next to the sunroom of this hunter's paradise! You may even see an occasional bobcat. The home is a 2,800sq ft ranch style earth contact home w/ a western feel, built with energy efficiency in mind. It has extra insulation with 6 inch walls, a new heat pump, water heater, Anderson windows, and 2 high energy heat pumps for heat and air conditioning. The exterior of the home is stucco and stone w/ attached garage. Interior features of this 3 bedroom, 2-1/2 bath home are granite countertops with undercounter lights, new GE Stove, Microwave, and Dishwasher, a lovely Sunroom, and 3 heating systems – Heat Pump, Strip heat with individual thermostats, and a pellet stove. Recent remodeling included new woodwork, new solid wood interior doors, new kitchen cabinets, and crown molding. There is an office -Which could be a 4th bedroom- off the dining room and a half bath in the laundry room. A new roof was added recently with 4 skylights across the back. A pavilion and garden area in the back provide a relaxing atmosphere. The well has a new pump and wiring. This is the perfect property for quiet secluded country living and only minutes from town and minutes from Fort Leonard Wood. This 102 m/l acre ranch has been used for its equestrian capabilities to keep horses over the years with 2 open pastures, and a small horse barn with 2 freeze-proof waterers. Also on site is a 40x62 barn with shop. This property is nearly halfway between Springfield and St. Louis and is close to the Piney River for fantastic fishing. Must see to appreciate!
