240 Acres of Great Hunting with Return on Investment Fredonia, KS / Wilson County

PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

Located between Fredonia and Altoona in the heart of Southeast Kansas, this 240-acre tract offers the perfect balance of hunting and investment potential.

With about 100 acres of productive tillable farmland, you'll have steady income along with a natural food source that keeps deer and wildlife on the property. Watching velvet bucks before season in the bean fields will become your new pre season hobby. The remaining acreage is a mix of timber, brush, and native cover that creates ideal habitat for trophy whitetails, turkey, and upland game.

The land features unique rock outcroppings that add character and provide natural travel corridors for game. A secluded pond tucked away in the timber serves as a year-round water source and a prime spot for both hunting and relaxation.

For the out-of-area hunter, this farm checks every box. It produces income, holds mature deer, and offers the kind of secluded Kansas hunting experience that is hard to find. Many types of trees can be found on this land including oak, pecan and walnut to name a few.

Highlights:

- 240 acres in Wilson County
- 100 acres of tillable for income and food plots
- Timber, brush, and cover for deer and turkey
- Secluded pond with rock bluffs and character
- Convenient location between Fredonia and Altoona

This farm is the type of place you can hunt with family and friends for years while it pays a dividend in the form of farm income.
