PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

Every hunter is always looking for that perfect 80. The only problem, they just don't come around very often. Luckily, this Wilson County, Kansas farm is that perfect 80 you are looking for and just in time for deer season. Sitting just a mile off HWY 75, this property has everything you are looking for in a recreational farm.

We might as well start with what Wilson County is known for, giant whitetails! This farm has a history of big bucks and this year is no different. Walking the property it has everything mature bucks need. It has water, food, and great cover throughout. The pond holds plenty of water year round to supply the local wildlife and keep them from roaming for water even on the driest of summers. The tillable acres will supply plenty of food to keep those whitetails growing all summer long. The approximate 6 acre field that sits off the road in the back corner of the property can be used as tillable acres, but would also make an unbelievable food plot that could feed your local herd all season long. The mixes of cedar thickets, timber, and grasses will keep the wildlife hidden and comfortable no matter what time of year it is. On top of that, the pond and field edges make for some great pinch points and funnels to set up multiple ambush locations. No matter how many big of bucks your farm holds, it does no good to have them if you can't kill them. This farm is as good of a deer farm as I've been on in quite some time.

Maybe one of the most attractive qualities this property possesses is the possible build site. Situated just 15 minutes from Chanute, Kansas and 1 mile off HWY 75, access to this property will be a breeze. Did I mention the paved road access? Add the electricity and rural water at the road and this farm would make a beautiful site to build that home of your dreams. With a winding road going to the back corner of the property and a 6 acre open field, you could build and have all the privacy you could ever imagine. Enjoying sunsets on the back of your property sounds like the things dreams are made of.

On top of everything this farm provides, don't forget about the 25 acres of tillable. The tillable acres can help ease the burden of a yearly payment or just put a little cash in your pocket while you enjoy the benefits this perfect property provides. Not only that, but it will provide the wildlife food year round and help keep them from roaming the neighborhood looking for something to fill their bellies.

So as you can see, this really is the Got IT All 80! There is no doubt the giant Kansas whitetails is atop the leader board when it comes to the reasons why this particular property is the one for you. But this location has all the makings of that build site for the future home of your dreams. No matter what you are looking for, this farm should catch your eye and check all the boxes. Whatever you do, do not delay because its guaranteed not to last long. Give Brian a call today \(620\)212-2027 to set up your own personal tour.
