PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

This 162+- acre tract is loaded with possibilities! Less than a two hour drive to DFW and under an hour to Abilene, it is conveniently located in the southern part of Eastland County. This acreage is currently being used as a hunting property and is packed with whitetail deer, turkey, dove, and hogs. Three tanks provide water for the wildlife, one of which is near the water well that provides additional water during dry conditions. Mature oaks, pecans and mesquites cover approximately 70 acres of the property. This tract is surrounded by larger, more open acreage on three sides, naturally drawing wildlife to the provided tree cover. This land has created many wonderful memories over the past few years and is ready for you to make yours!
