PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

Located just west of I-35 on Oswalt Road in Love County, Oklahoma, Grey Duck Ranch is a standout 90-acre tract in a highly sought-after area known for quality ranches, horse properties, and a strong community of landowners focused on wildlife management.

From the moment you pull through the gate, it's clear this is a place that's been cared for the right way. The property is exceptionally clean, well-maintained, and set up for immediate use. At the entrance, you'll find a solid set of cattle working pens with a working chute and water well-functional, efficient, and ready to go. The headquarters also includes a fully furnished 20-foot shipping container bunkhouse and a 30x40 shop with a 15-foot lean-to, complete with water and electric.

This is a true turnkey offering, featuring a 2017 John Deere 5075E tractor (approx. 400 hours), a John Deere MX-8 brush cutter, a 10-foot drag-type breaking plow, and a 165-gallon spray rig and other attachments. For the outdoorsman, the ranch comes equipped with a box blind, two feeders, and multiple ladder stands already in place.

The land itself offers a strong balance of usability and habitat. The east side is more open, with bermudagrass and a mix of native and improved grasses-ideal for grazing or hay production. The remainder of the ranch transitions into beautiful, mature oak timber with established trails and several natural openings. Toward the south end, a spring-fed moist soil area provides excellent potential for waterfowl development and could easily be enhanced into a managed duck hunting setup.

Surrounded by like-minded neighbors who prioritize quality deer management, this area consistently produces strong whitetail genetics along with outstanding turkey numbers. Whether you're looking to run cattle, develop a hunting property, build a horse setup, or create a private homestead, Grey Duck Ranch is the kind of place that's ready to enjoy from day one.
