

10.27 Ac Tr 13 Taylor County

Ivy Ridge Ranch Subdivision is the perfect place to call home, giving you the seclusion desired in today's busy society. Paired with the convenience of being only minutes away from US Hwy 277, it gives you a straight shot to either Abilene or San Angelo. These tracts are located approx. 13 miles north of Winters, Winters school district. And a new private road has just been built to allow access to each tract off CR 212. Electricity runs on the back of each tract, and a few tracts have electricity running across different areas of the property. There are 3 water wells currently drilled on tracts 1, 6, and 15. The seller believes there won't be any issues in finding water on the other tracts. Deer, turkey, hogs, quail, and dove have all been seen on the property. Call today to reserve your piece of West Texas ranchland hideaway!!
