

27.57+/-Acres Concho County

Very nice 27.57 + or - acres in Concho County. Should be a good hunting property as deer were seen while walking and taking pictures. Quite property but easy access to the property. Fantastic views from the high hill on the property you can see for miles. Lots of game trails throughout the property and there is a seasonal creek that goes thru the property could be a good place to build a tank. The property is partially fenced and there are some minimal restrictions that are in place to maintain the property value. O.H.IVE reservoir is approx. 15 minutes away. Buyer will need to drill a water well.
