

65+/- Ac Taylor County

This 65+- acres, in highly sought-after Jim Ned I.S.D., has it all! If you are looking for a good combination property to hunt and fish or possibly call home, this is it! There are deer, hogs, dove, a good number of turkeys, and plenty of other wild game. There is electricity on-site, as well as Runnels County water. There is also an old hand dug well on the property that appears to have water in the bottom. Most of the land is covers in heavy mesquite cover, but the back roughly 50 acres is clearer and would be easily turned into a wheat or crop of your choice. This property would make a good cow or goat place with good soil throughout. Fenced and cross fenced with fair to go fencing. There's CR 186 frontage along the western boundary and county road frontage on the southern boundary.
