PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

For immediate assistance with this listing call Casey Davis at 910-330-9506.

Versatile 41.5-Acre Property with Timber, Farmland, and Easement Access Near Wallace, NC. Call Casey Davis at 910-330-9506 to schedule a showing today!

Discover the perfect blend of investment potential, natural beauty, and convenience with this 41.5-acre property located just one mile from Interstate 40 (Exit 384) outside of the growing town of Wallace, North Carolina. The land features approximately 33 acres of natural loblolly pines and mixed hardwoods of variable age, offering long-term timber value as well as excellent space for hunting, recreation, and wildlife habitat. An additional highlight of the property is an unnamed tributary to Paget Branch, a scenic waterway that flows through the tract, enhancing both its aesthetic appeal and ecological diversity. The remaining 8.5 acres consist of cleared, usable farmland that is ideal for crops, pasture, or potential homesites.

Situated in Duplin County, this property provides a peaceful, private setting while still being close to shopping, dining, and services in Wallace. Its proximity to I-40 offers easy access to Wilmington, Raleigh, and surrounding communities, placing beaches, ports, and city amenities within a short drive while still enjoying the privacy and quiet of open rural land.

The property is accessed by easement and is well-suited for timber investment, homesteading, farming, recreation, or future development.

No soil evaluation has been performed to determine septic suitability.

Property is shown by appointment only. This acreage is part of a larger parcel. An additional 20.3± acres of cleared farmland associated with parcel 09433 is also for sale.
