PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

Step back in time at this beautiful historic ranch nestled in the heart of the Land of Enchantment! Red Lake Ranch offers the perfect blend of history, natural waters, & native grasses for cattle, horses, & a variety of wildlife. The geographical diversity of this ranch creates stunning views from the Top of the Mesa. As the sun sets, the red clay & painted rim rock comes alive in a beautiful blend of colors. A variety of water fowl frequent the lake perfect for hunters or outdoor enthusiasts. The vegetation from sub-moisture of the lake bottom and the remains of the dry stacked rock wall corrals tell a story of an agricultural hot spot. The dugout & homestead ruins on the rim, as well as the Native American artifacts show the importance of this place for many generations. Some of Red Lake Ranch's more recent improvements include a western-style log cabin and 2 working water wells. An extensive series of well-maintained ranch roads enhance your ease & exploration of the property, while creating enjoyable hunting and recreational opportunities to see wildlife such as deer, antelope and other native species. Red Lake Ranch conveniently sits 30 miles from Lake Sumner, and 11 miles from the town of Fort Sumner (the final resting place of William Bonny aka Billy The Kid). Let Red Lake Ranch be your new home or secluded get away.
