PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

312+/- Acres With Proven Deer History In Rooks County, Kansas

Legal Description: W2 S07-T6S-16W

Property Description: Located just 5 miles South of Kirwin National Wildlife Refuge, is this 312 +/- acre hunting and investment property, offering the perfect blend of habitat diversity, income potential, and big deer history. Scrolling through the trail camera pictures and harvest photos gives a clear picture of the trophy producing power of this farm. With the emergence of more and more locust and native trees, the potential of this property is only just beginning. Whether you're a serious hunter looking to create your dream farm, or a land investor searching for a high-potential piece of ground with quality tillable and pasture, this one checks all the boxes.

Property Highlights:

- Proven Big Deer Property: With a strong track record of producing mature Kansas whitetails, this farm is perfect for a new owner who wants to build their Kansas dream farm. The natural habitat and trophy genetics are already in place, and with the right management plan and habitat improvements, it could become even more exceptional.
- Excellent Upland Hunting: Both pheasants and quail call the property home, creating bonus upland hunting opportunities.
- Additional Recreation: Kirwin Reservoir, well-known as a premier waterfowl destination and one of Kansas' top walleye and crappie fisheries is just 5 miles away.
- Diverse Habitat: The property features a mix of productive tillable ground, overgrown pasture with locust trees, brushy draws, and scattered timber pockets ideal for bedding, food, and natural movement corridors. With the number of emerging trees in the pasture, the deer habitat within the next five years is going to be incredible.
- Water Sources: The property is connected into a rural water tap with a cistern, providing available water for personal or wildlife use at all times. Located in the center of the property is a bonus water well with a solar pump, providing a dependable, year-round water source. There is also a series of multiple seasonal ponds, when they are holding water, expect excellent early season duck shoots.
- Prime Location: Just 5 miles from Kirwin National Wildlife Refuge, this farm benefits from outstanding deer movement and access to some of the best whitetail genetics in the region.
- Income Producing Potential: The tillable acres offer reliable ag income, while the habitat-rich areas are perfect for personal use or generating revenue through a hunting lease. The pasture portion of the property could also support a cattle herd.
- Utilities On Site: Electricity runs along the South and North side of the property, making it easy to set up a hunting cabin, camper site, or future build site.
- Access: Quality chalk roads provide great access to the property along the South and West side, while a dirt road runs along the North.

Driving Directions: From Stockton, KS along HWY 183, travel North 6 miles to C Rd. Turn East and travel 7 miles on C Rd. to the intersection of C Rd. and 25 Rd. This marks the Southwest corner of the property.
