PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

The Fishing Creek Tract

The Fishing Creek Tract is a beautifully situated, Chester County tree farm capable of satisfying a variety of rural land wishes. This 275-acre property features managed pine plantations, natural hardwoods, and more than 3,700 feet of frontage along Fishing Creek. Almost 70 acres of 8-year-old pine plantations and nearly 75 acres of 5-year-old pine plantations offer cover and habitat for wildlife while growing towards a first thinning. Until then, you can enjoy the developing pine forest as an outdoor enthusiast or hands-on manager. Twelve acres under transmission line rights-of-way offer great recreational use and opportunities to maintain or expand existing game patches. Add to that, 21 acres of mature natural hardwoods and over 90 acres of successfully regenerating young hardwoods and you have an ideal private retreat ready to implement your stewardship plan for conservation and hunting adventures. Paved road frontage and several interior trails provide easy recreational and management access. The Fishing Creek Tract has almost 3,000 feet of frontage on both sides of Humpback Bridge Rd.

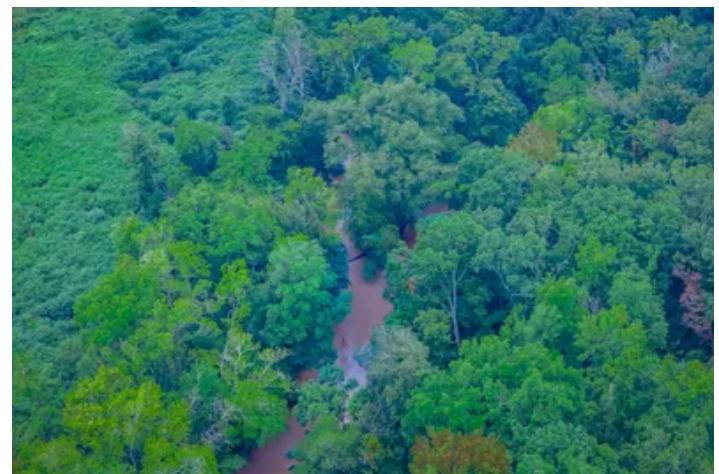

The Fishing Creek Tract may be one of the most convenient recreational properties in Chester County. At just 5 minutes to Interstate 77, Rock Hill is only a 15-minute drive and Charlotte is only 30 minutes further. Even Columbia can be reached in less than an hour and a half.
