PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

Invest, Inhabit, Enjoy.

The Bucks 6/7 Tract 3 is a beautifully situated 370.61 gis-acre property lying southwest of Conway and is one of the larger property offerings in the area. With over a 1/2 mile of road frontage and gentle topography, the property offers plenty of opportunities for converting to pasture or establishing game patches. The mature planted pines and bottomland provide excellent habitats for wildlife and perfectly complement the neighboring properties. The interior road system gives excellent access to future recreational development.

The Investment that Works While you Play

While you may choose to hunt on the property, the Bucks 6/7 Tract 3 is a functioning timberland investment. With over 40% of the 370.61 acres occupied by mature pine plantations, the property is a very efficient timberland investment. Good internal access and proximity to major highways, as well as excellent topography, make the property an attractive site for marketing timber. Proper site preparation, seedling selection, and establishment have resulted in a healthy stand of trees ready for you to assume the role of manager.

Quietly Situated, Conveniently Located

The Tract is an easily accessible property and is located just 10 miles southwest of Conway. With proximity to shopping essentials, including local food, and educational opportunities at Horry Georgetown Community College or Coastal Carolina University. Aynor is a quick 20-minute drive and Atlantic Beach is a 45-mile ride. The area hosts numerous activities, including fishing, boating, public beaches and coastal waterway access.
