Red Bluff Ranch Buffalo, OK / Harper County

PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

Welcome to Red Bluff Ranch, an exceptional 1,203 +/- acre ranch located in Harper County, Oklahoma! This premier cattle and recreational property offers an exceptional potential for a multitude of ranching and hunting opportunities! With frontage along Highway 183, the ranch provides convenient access while still maintaining the privacy and wide-open feel that defines Western Oklahoma ranch country. The landscape of Red Bluff Ranch is truly one of a kind! Deep timbered draws wind throughout the property, creating excellent habitat and natural travel corridors for wildlife. Towering red clay bluffs line the draws and provide breathtaking scenery along with ideal vantage points for long-range rifle hunting. The rugged terrain, combined with heavy cover in the bottoms, creates prime conditions for holding mature whitetail deer and other native wildlife. Designed with cattle operations in mind, the ranch is fully fenced and features multiple cross fences already in place to support rotational grazing practices. The property includes four separate pastures, offering flexibility for cattle management, hay production, or both. Two solar wells provide dependable water sources for livestock and wildlife, while catch pens located on the ranch make working cattle efficient and convenient. In addition to its strong agricultural value, Red Bluff Ranch offers exceptional recreational appeal. The combination of rolling grass country, deep canyon-like draws, scattered timber, and a pond creates a diverse landscape that is both functional and scenic. Whether you are looking to expand a cattle operation, develop a premier hunting ranch, or invest in a true multi-use property, Red Bluff Ranch is a rare opportunity in the heart of Harper County. This ranch is conveniently located just +/- 12 minutes from Buffalo, +/- 33 minutes from Woodward, and 2 hours and +/- 45 minutes from OKC.
