PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

Located just 5 miles northwest of Presho, South Dakota, this 160± acre property offers a balanced combination of productive cropland and premium wildlife habitat. With a strong 75.31 CPI on 138.55 acres of tillable ground, this farm provides dependable agricultural returns while also offering exceptional recreational potential. The northeast corner of the property features a dam and a scenic creek that meanders through lush wetlands, creating ideal conditions for both wildlife and water management. This natural corridor supports a thriving population of pheasants and whitetail deer, making it a perfect destination for upland bird and big game hunters alike.

Access is a key feature of this tract, with a well-maintained gravel road running along the property, ensuring easy entry for farm equipment or recreational use in all seasons. The layout of the land, combined with fertile soils and reliable access, makes this a versatile holding well-suited for the producer, investor, or sportsman. Whether you're looking to expand your farming operation, diversify your investment portfolio, or secure a private getaway with strong hunting potential, this Lyman County gem checks all the boxes.
