Discover the potential for this unique hunting property in northwest Person County!

These two primarily wooded parcels of mixed timber total approximately +/- 69.03 acres, offering prime recreational hunting opportunities for deer and turkey enthusiasts. With a 30-foot deeded access easement off Scott Road, you'll have easy entry to your secluded retreat. Tract 1 even includes a 12-foot deeded utility right-of-way from the neighboring property, potentially allowing Piedmont Electric Cooperative to hook up power if you choose-perfect for a hunting cabin or base camp. Best of all, there are no deed restrictions on either tract, giving you full freedom to customize your setup.

An extensive 1.2-mile trail network weaves through both parcels, providing good access for scouting, stand placement, and quiet movement during hunts. Tract 1 spans about +/- 22.58 acres and features a 1.7-acre open clearing that's ideal for planting a high-yield food plot to attract big bucks and strutting toms. This spot is encircled by replanted loblolly pines, creating natural, secluded bedding areas where deer love to hide, as well as future return on your investment. Multiple access trails from the south, west, and east let you approach based on wind direction, maximizing your odds on those crisp mornings.

Just east of the field along the southern trail, a north-to-south creek cuts through the heart of the properties, emptying into Cane Creek. This natural funnel is a hotspot for deer, turkey, and even the occasional black bear, drawing wildlife year-round with its reliable water source. It also holds strong potential for a pond build-out, enhancing habitat and creating even more edge for ambushing game while increasing the property's value.

Tract 2 covers roughly 46.45 acres, expanding your hunting grounds with diverse terrain-ridges for turkey setups in spring and bottoms for deer rut action in fall. Picture yourself in a stand on a foggy autumn dawn, watching a trophy buck chase does through the hardwoods, or perched along a ridge at first light, calling in a gobbler echoing from the creek bed.

For downtime between hunts, you're just northwest of Hyco Lake, a haven for lake lovers with boating, fishing, and more. Nearby Mayo Lake offers additional perks like hiking trails and campgrounds.
