Railsplitter Ridge Parcel 2

Decatur, IL / Macon County

PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

Discover a rare opportunity to own a beautifully natural building site, offered as one of three contiguous tracts available individually or together. This parcel is perfectly suited for buyers who want to build with the land, not against it. There's ample room for a driveway, home site, and outbuildings, all while preserving the green space and tree canopy that make this property special. It's an excellent fit for a low-impact development (LID) approach — a design philosophy that works with the land's existing features rather than reshaping them, giving you a home site that feels tucked into nature rather than carved out of it. Infrastructure is on the way: the owner plans to add a hard-surface road and have Ameren run power to the sites, making future development even more convenient. Whether you're looking for a private homestead, a weekend retreat, or a long-term investment, this tract offers the space and setting to make it happen.
