You have to take a look at this beautiful 4.26-acre wooded property located in Henderson, NC in Vance County, just off Mabry Mill Road. With over 400 feet of road frontage, this tract offers excellent access and a wide range of possibilities. The property is filled with mature hardwoods and oak trees, creating a scenic and private setting ideal for a future homesite.

The large trees allow you to selectively clear the perfect spot for your dream home while still maintaining privacy and natural beauty. Several small existing structures are located on the property and appear to be in decent condition, offering potential for storage, workshops, or repurposing for future use. An old meter box remains on site where power was previously run to the larger structure, making it convenient to reconnect utilities.

If you love being close to water- this location is a bonus being so close to Kerr Lake Reservoir! Kerr Lake is known for it's boating, camping, and world-class fishing.

This property has the perfect commuting distance to other towns with easy access to I-85, cities, and plenty of activities!

7 minutes from Kerr Lake State Recreation Area

4 minutes from Kerr Lake Country Club

7 minutes to Nutbrush Creek Recreation Area & Boat Ramp

10 minutes to downtown Henderson, NC

1 hour to Raleigh, NC

42 minutes to Durham, NC

This is a stunning piece of land with character, road frontage, and potential — a must-see property that won't last long!
