Private Hunting Reserve Near Tulsa Kellyville, OK / Creek County

PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

Located in Kellyville in Creek County, Oklahoma, this 365 +/- acre property is the kind of hunting tract that is becoming harder to find in this part of the state. Large, secluded acreage this close to Tulsa is difficult to come by, especially ground that is already set up and proven to hold wildlife. Whitetail deer and turkey are established on the property, and the existing improvements make it ready to hunt from day one. A gated entrance leads into a heavily wooded landscape with rolling terrain and significant elevation changes throughout. Ridges rise above deep draws, creating natural funnels and travel corridors that deer use to move through the property. The elevation also provides excellent vantage points and a variety of setups for hunting different winds and conditions. Thick timber offers plenty of bedding and security cover, giving wildlife what they need to stay on the property rather than simply pass through. An established ATV trail system winds throughout the acreage and connects multiple existing blind and feeder setups. Nearly the entire property can be accessed by side-by-side or ATV, making it easy to get to stands, check feeders, or simply enjoy the land. During wetter seasons, runoff and wet-weather creeks wind through the timber, adding additional travel corridors and seasonal water throughout the property. Near the south end is a large pond stocked with crappie and baitfish, providing fishing opportunities while serving as an important water source for wildlife. A carport near the entrance provides additional space for storing equipment, ATVs, or hunting gear. While hunting is the main attraction, the acreage also offers future potential. There is plenty of room to establish additional food plots or hunting setups, and a cabin could be added to create a private hunting camp. With the size of the property and its location near Kellyville, there is also potential for future development if the next owner chooses to take it in that direction. The property is located just 26 +/- minutes from Bristow, 33 +/- minutes from Tulsa, 37 +/- minutes from Okmulgee, and 1 hour 26 +/- minutes from Oklahoma City. With proven wildlife, established hunting setups, and hundreds of acres of secluded timber to hunt, this is a rare opportunity to own a large private hunting tract in Creek County! All showings are by appointment only.
