Discover 12.61 acres of unrestricted timberland in a quiet and secluded area of Sanford, NC. This property consists of two adjoining parcels (8.17 acres and 4.44 acres) that together create a private retreat surrounded by mature timber and abundant wildlife. With railroad tracks running along both sides, the property offers an exceptional sense of privacy and seclusion.

The land features a healthy mix of hardwoods and planted pines at varying stages of growth, providing both scenic appeal and potential long-term timber value. A walk through the property reveals significant deer and other wildlife activity, making it a great option for hunters, outdoor enthusiasts, or anyone looking for a weekend escape.

With no deed restrictions or HOA, the possibilities are wide open. The property could serve as a recreational tract, hunting property, or long-term timber investment, and it also offers the flexibility to create your own private homesite or cabin in the woods.

Conveniently located just minutes from downtown Sanford, U.S. Hwy 1, and surrounding amenities, this tract offers the ideal balance of privacy and accessibility.
