14.67 Acres of Recreational Land For Sale in Granville County NC! Oxford, NC / Granville County

PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

Secluded 14.67 acre hunting & recreational tract with creek!

Discover 14.67 acres of prime recreational land tucked just off Tar River Rd in Oxford, NC. This wooded tract offers the kind of natural setting outdoor enthusiasts are always searching for, featuring a strong mix of mature timber and natural open pockets that create ideal bedding, feeding, and travel corridors for wildlife.

The property is loaded with deer sign, and its diverse habitat supports healthy populations of turkeys, waterfowl, and small game making it a well-rounded hunting and recreational retreat. Peaceful Johnson Creek winds through the property, enhancing the habitat as a year-round water source that consistently draws wildlife. The combination of water, cover, and natural clearings gives this tract the feel of a much larger piece.

A 50 foot deeded easement allows easy access off a private gravel road.

While the property offers privacy and seclusion, you're still within easy reach of everyday conveniences. Just a short drive brings you to Creedmoor, a fast-growing area known for its small-town charm, local dining, and quick access to larger city amenities. Nearby Durham provides shopping, healthcare, and entertainment, while Raleigh offers everything from major employers to international travel.

Whether you're after a private hunting tract, a quiet weekend escape, or a long-term land investment in a steadily growing region, this property checks all the boxes.
