Enterprise 398 — Trophy Whitetails, CRP Income & Premier Upland Bird Hunting Enterprise, KS / Dickinson County

PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

This 398 ± acre income-producing recreational farm in North Central Kansas, is uniquely managed to maximize both upland bird hunting and trophy deer opportunities. With carefully balanced CRP, native grasses, food plots, and timber, the farm provides the ideal habitat mosaic for pheasant, quail, turkey, and whitetails alike.

The property has been thoughtfully set up for upland hunters — wide expanses of native grass, edge cover, and food sources create flushes of pheasant and coveys of quail across the farm. This same biodiversity and dense cover naturally attract and hold trophy whitetails, with a proven track record of Boone & Crockett caliber deer, including the coveted 200 inch mark. Today, mature bucks are already on camera, showing the farm is producing right now.

Everywhere you step, wildlife is present — from birds in the grasses to deer along the Milo plots and turkeys in the timber. This is a must see Kansas property that truly delivers the full spectrum of hunting experiences in one turnkey package.
