PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

Escape to the beauty of Northern New Mexico with this exceptional 272.27-acre property located in the highly sought-after Ticonderoga subdivision. This expansive acreage features a rich and diverse landscape filled with towering ponderosa pines, Gambel oak, spruce, aspen, and juniper trees. Sitting at just over 8,000 feet in elevation, the property offers breathtaking northern views from the mountaintop-perfect for those seeking privacy, natural beauty, and wide-open space. Wildlife is abundant, with elk, mule deer, turkey, black bear, grouse, and the occasional mountain lion roaming the area-making this a true outdoorsman's paradise. The current owner has enjoyed successful elk and mule deer hunts on the property. The property may qualify for elk and deer tags through the New Mexico Department of Game & Fish (NMGFD). Historically, these parcels were part of a larger tract that had assigned tags. A new owner will need to apply through the E-Plus program, and while tags are not guaranteed, the seller will convey two tags with the sale. Residents of Ticonderoga enjoy access to a 400-acre recreational/common area, complete with fishing ponds and scenic creeks. Recreational fees for these parcels have already been paid. HOA, landowner, and recreational fees are assessed annually. This is a rare opportunity to own a large, scenic tract in one of Northern New Mexico's premier recreational communities. Please note ponds and creek are not on the subject property and are part of the recreation/common area.
